volume XII a foreword

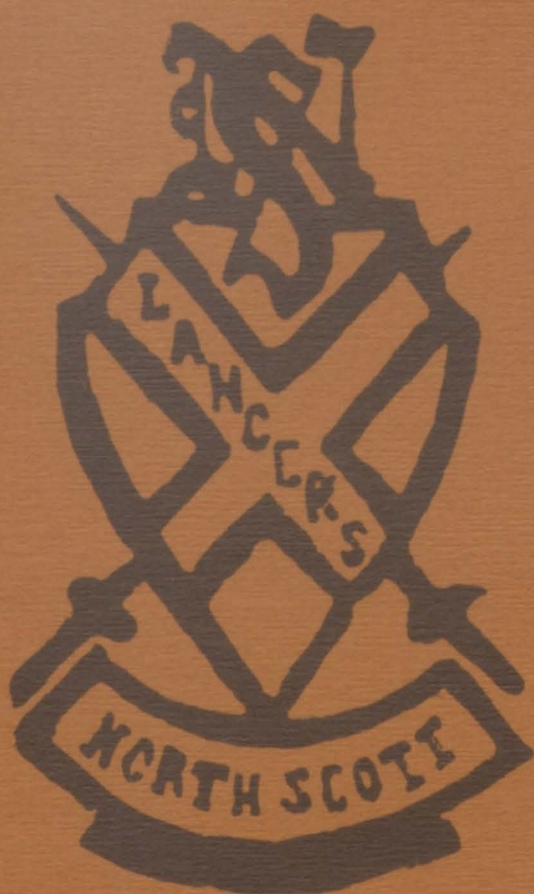

This has been a year of many steps for everyone: of "giant steps for mankind", of uncertain steps for a country involved in a continuing war. This year has seen us taking steps to enter a new decade. It promises to be a decade of marvelous accomplishments. In the near future we can see ourselves living in new environments: perhaps on a distant planet, perhaps under the sea. We can see ourselves riding in vehicles completely new to our imagination. We opened a decade certain to be better than any other. At the same time we were looking into the future, we also looked back over the past. We saw times we wish could have been changed; other times we know could have been no better.

Here at North Scott, this was a year of steps leading to many changes—changes both in our school and in ourselves. We saw the face of our school being changed for the better. More important, however, were the changes that took place within ourselves this past year. We all saw ourselves grow another year older, another year more mature. For many of us, the events of this past year included the loss of a friend. For others, it embodied the making of new ones. We all took steps toward the improvement of North Scott during the year. We all wanted it to be better. Some worked for this betterment through athletics, some through music. Others sought to do this by devoting much of their time to science, speech and drama, and journalism.

It has been our goal to present North Scott and its students in the midst of these changes and to follow the footsteps that led to them. Sometimes these steps led in many directions, sometimes they ended in "dead ends". No matter what direction they took, we here try to present them all in the 1970 SHIELD.

I see myself afar
Where my love it seems
Is not a distant star.

Where war and poverty is always banished
Where hatred is forever banned
Where love will never vanish
And when in need, there is a hand.

Then I come back to reality
Where hatred seems to reign
And I bless my ability
To escape all the pain.

AN AWARENESS
OF MY FUTURE.

There are many things left to be done before my death. I have many things to learn, and books to read. During my lifetime I will meet many interesting people. With their help I will have to solve many problems. Someday I will have to find a job and earn a living. I will become the head of a family, and my wife and children will depend on me for food and clothing. They will need life insurance and savings accounts to assure them of always having the money they need. There will be many enjoyments ahead of me. I will have dates to go on, and parties to attend. I can look forward to many pleasant vacations. I will have a good chance to see the U.S.A., and its many wonders. I have many things to do, and no time to waste.

THE SHIELD 1970 IS DEDICATED TO..

Those faculty members who have taken many steps through the halls of North Scott since its beginning in 1958; to those who have taken important steps toward the improvement of our school.

MRS. LUCILLE DAY

Before there was a North Scott High there was a Mrs. Day. Remember the one room schools of her teaching past, insight into her students is revealed by the smile all receive. Art is communication with people, and we learn through her and her art. Art is awareness, and in her one senses an awareness of so many, many things. Schools would collapse without Mrs. Days.

Debbie Orendorff '70

MR. JIM NELSON

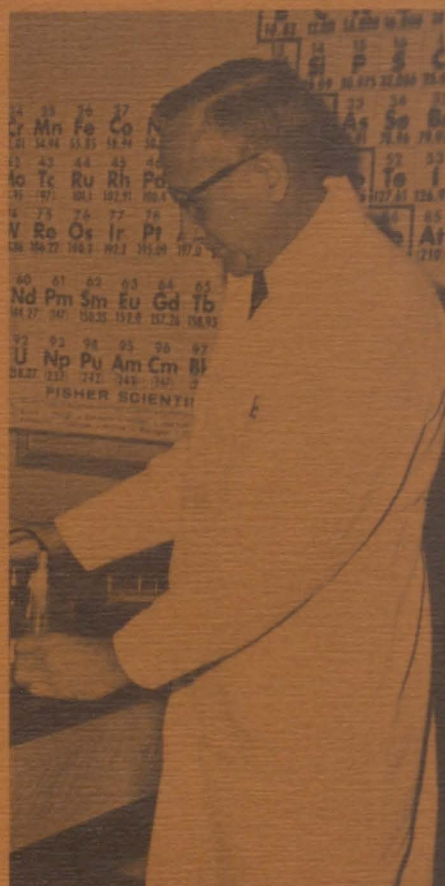

Whatever the sport may be, a gym teacher must be able to teach the sport or game and at the same time keep discipline in a usually roudy gym class. Mr. James Nelson meets all these requirements to the fullest extent. Through the years he has been a coach of baseball, basketball, and track and has gained the respect of all his students through his sincere desire for good sportsmanship. For twelve years now, Mr. Nelson has been blowing his whistle and checking for clean clothes and most likely will keep blowing and checking until the day when all his hair falls out.

Dick Pischke '70

MR. KEN PEETERS

When one thinks of the science department at North Scott one just naturally thinks of Mr. Peeters. You can talk to him about almost anything, from the creation of the world to the Vietnam War and American politics. Mr. Peeter's sense of humor has seen him through many difficult situations. It helps him to insert a little humor into the classroom and probably keeps him from blowing up when all his students' experiments are.

Julie Keller '70

MR. DON SCOTT

He relentlessly and untiringly hammers and drills choice bits of pertinent and unbiased pieces of information into our knowledge starved craniums. He has become extremely efficient at relating to the students of North Scott just the things they need to know. I must take advantage of this extremely opportune time to offer up my respect to Mr. Scott as a great teacher of North Scott.

Lee Hamann '70

MR. MILTON SCHATZ

Often seen walking through the halls with his little brown briefcase is this man in white shirt and no tie. He came here not knowing that North Scott was in its initial year. Jr. High English Composition was his subject now replaced with Sociology, American Government and American History. He can think faster and formulate opinions faster than any of his students. When your quizzes are games, Mr. Schatz is your teacher.

Bonnie Martens '70

MRS. BETTY STAMER, RN.

Many students go through their two years of junior high and those four long years of high school without knowing many of the teachers at North Scott. The reason is that they never have them for a class. But there is one person that everyone knows very well. Who else could it be, but the school nurse? Mrs. Betty Stamer is probably the busiest person at North Scott. Besides taking care of attendance and keeping track of who has gone where on what day, her office is always full. Sometimes it's even hard to find standing room. She takes care of everything from headaches and cuts to broken arms and twisted ankles. And of course that major ailment of not getting enough sleep and needing a place to "sack-out" for an hour or two. It seems at times that anyone doing as much as she does would just collapse, but Mrs. Stamer smiles through it all, and continues on with aspirin and bandages.

MR. HEILER AND BOARD TAKE ADDITIONAL STEPS

The long-awaited additions to the high school and elementary school buildings have started to become a reality. This school year the first signs of additions to the high school were the graveled parking areas. Enlarging the library; adding a large lecture hall; expanding band, vocal, and physical education areas; increasing the area of the cafeteria; and replacing the court with a student lounge area were among the many long-range plans. Elementary schools at Long Grove, Donahue, Princeton, and Eldridge will be supplemented by Multi-purpose rooms, music rooms, and needed additional classrooms. These additions take a step toward the fulfillment of the many dreams of the North Scott educational system in the community.

If you can keep your head when all about you
Are losing theirs and blaming it on you;
If you can trust yourself when all men doubt you,
But make allowance for their doubting too:
If you can wait and not be tired by waiting,
Or, being lied about, don't deal in lies,
Or being hated don't give way to hating,
And yet don't look too good, nor talk too wise;

If you can dream—and not make dreams your master;
If you can think—and not make thoughts your aim,
If you can meet with Triumph and Disaster
And treat those two imposters just the same:
If you can bear to hear the truth you've spoken
Twisted by knaves to make a trap for fools,
Or watch the things you gave your life to, broken,
And stoop and build 'em up with worn-out tools;

If you can make one heap of all your winnings
And risk it on one turn of pitch-and-toss,
And lose and start again at your beginnings,
And never breathe a word about your loss:
If you can force your heart and nerve and sinew
To serve your turn long after they are gone,
And so hold on when there is nothing in you
Except the Will which says to them: "Hold on!"

If you can talk with crowds and keep your virtue,
Or walk with Kings—nor lose the common touch,
If neither foes nor loving friends can hurt you,
If all men count with you, but none too much:
If you can fill the unforgiving minute
With sixty seconds' worth of distance run,
Yours is the Earth and everything that's in it,
And—which is more—you'll be a Man, my son!

SENIOR LEADERS TAKE STEPS TO SERVE STUDENTS

SPACE, the Student Program for Achievement in Citizenship and Education, had introduced a sense of responsibility to its members concerning their studies and their duty as members of the community. To keep the North Scott SPACE Program running smoothly, a seven member space council was made up of seniors elected by all the senior SPACE members. The council consisted of Marsha Acord, Jennifer Rock, Deena Carter, Paulette Engel, Dick Pischke, Roger Ballou, and Don Keehner. They governed the program, handling discipline problems, and aided prospective members.

SEATED: Cheryl Green, Deena Carter, President; Butch Roller, Vice-President, Pam Martin. SECOND ROW: Ardyce Marsh, Roger Schneckloth, Steve Jansen, Susie Dittmer, Secretary; Dave Golvinghorst, Treasurer; Bob Auliff. STANDING: Caroline Smith, Michelle Gibson, Ernie Meyer, Janie Ewoldt, Louise Auliff, Pete Lagoni, Fred Green, and Jon McCubbin. This was the first year for the newly formed Student Congress. They started by planning the 1969 Homecoming. As the year progressed the Congress sponsored a needy family in this area at Christmas. They also put on a skit, "How the Grinch Stole Christmas" at the Friendly House in Davenport. Through their leadership, they tried to show the students of North Scott as responsible, learning citizens.

MODEL U.N. DELEGATES MEET AMBASSADOR FROM THAILAND TRAVEL TO NORTHERN IOWA UNIVERSITY

On April 10 and 11, 1970, several North Scott students became delegates at the Model United Nations held at the University of Northern Iowa. Marsha Acord, Norman Freund, Lee Hamann, Julie Keller, Jon Kreiter, Susie Kuehl, Ardyce Marsh, Sally Mickelson, Nina Mohr, Kevin Quinn, Sue Shaw, Marilyn Suiter represented the country of Thailand and gave its viewpoints in the General Assembly. High school students from all over the state come to Cedar Falls for the Model UN which is an annual event. Each delegation of students selects a head delegate, North Scott's being Marsha Acord. Such topics as Viet Nam, the Irish conflict, and drugs were debated this year. The United Nations is dedicated to taking international steps to peace and understanding. The Model UN and its delegates from North Scott took many steps of their own to learn through understanding.

The Senior librarians, as all the library assistants, were important to our new librarian, Mr. Quentin Coffman. For Sindie Horstman, Susan Spies and Pam Meyer, at right, this was their final year as library aids. Each has spent many long hours typing, filing, and shelving books. The other student librarians also lent their extra hours and were very much appreciated when the students could not find a certain book or magazine.

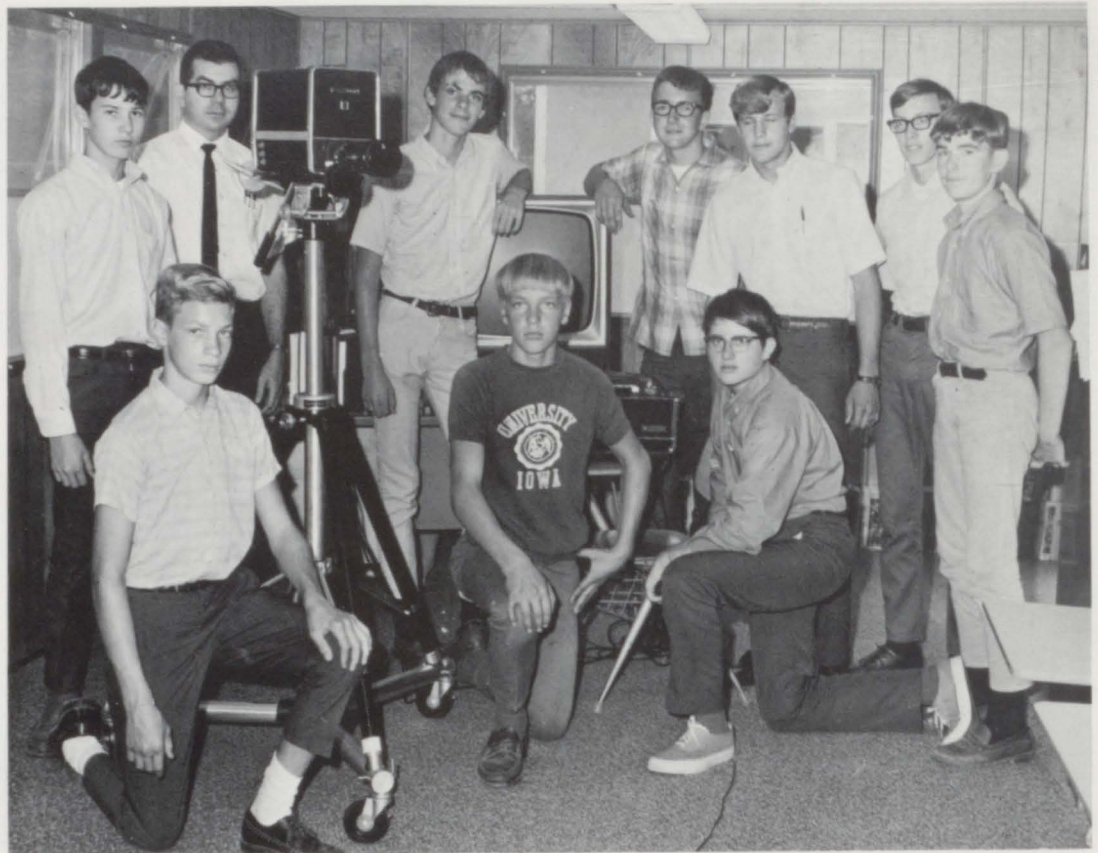

Besides our new librarian something else new was added to our library: a microfilm reader. Starting with twenty magazines on microfilm, each year more will be added to the collection. This was a needed addition because there were very little back issues of periodicals because of the greatly limited storage space.

Steps in the library may be quiet, but a step is a step is a step!!

The Spanish Club was a busy organization this year. Monthly programs included a skit on Columbus discovering America for Spain at the October meeting. Talks by foreign students from the area colleges and a Christmas party where a Spanish meal was served highlighted mid-year meetings. A play presented and acted by the third year students was given for Spanish clubs in the area.

An important part of the club is the experience the members gain in speaking Spanish. For this reason all meetings are held in Spanish. Lynn Anderson and Dave Whisler, two of the third year Spanish students, hope very strongly to take a trip to Mexico this summer.

Spanish is one of the most important languages of the world. Well spoken Spanish is truly a beautiful language and a step to communication with our fellow man.

Reading looks easier than it is prove Dave Whisler, Kevin Quinn and Richard Ankney. Speaking is difficult, too, to Ardyce Marsh and Michelle Maiden. These are the ways we learn, they say.

STEPS TO A CLASSROOM FUTURE TEACHERS OF AMERICA

This year's outstanding program of the Future Teachers at NS was highlighted by a trip to the University of Northern Iowa on November 5. The day consisted of lectures aimed at familiarizing students to the many facets of a college campus. The F.T.A. also helped in the Jr. High activity room. Some students volunteered to aid Mrs. Geraldine Kline, the Jr. High special reading teacher. During National Education Week in November, the F.T.A. served as guides during the High School's open house. Special programs involving faculty, parents, and community citizens were held for the prospective teachers to help them realize what teaching as a career involves. The Future Teachers also sponsored the annual Teacher's Tea in May. All the many experiences these members gained in high school will undoubtedly aid them in the future and make them better teachers.

Nurses must do a number of things, as these pictures show. Future Nurses Club is designed for those who aspire to learn those number of things. "There'd be nothing to do if all was well" should be the motto of these girls. Mrs. Betty Stamer, R.N., our school nurse, says "Say Ahhh!" to Gail Kraft, Joanne Dumar, and the supposed victim, Linda Brotherton.

STEPS TO SAVE: FNC

IT'S FARROWING STEPS FOR FUTURE FARMERS OF AMERICA

The FFA year started with several of its members going to the National FFA Convention in Kansas City, Missouri on October 16 and 17. Representing the North Scott Chapter were: Mike Brase, David Rauch, Bill Oetzmann, Ned Schroeder, Les Schneckloth, Randy Amhof, and Mr. Marsh. Prospective farmers sold oranges and grapefruit at Christmas time to make money for their organization. The members also competed in the Hog Show at DeWitt in February. A creed speaker was chosen from the chapter and was responsible for memorizing the FFA Creed and presenting it in competition.

All of these steps throughout the year added up to a big step toward the yield of experience that will prove a great aid to these farmers of tomorrow.

A lot laid ahead of the North Scott band this year as they diligently prepared for their trip to Winnipeg, Canada June 24-29 to participate in the Winnipeg Summer Festival. The first goal of the students was to raise a total of $90 each to cover expenses. To do this, several projects were presented to the students and they had their choice of what they would like to participate in. Among the choices, were selling Texas fruitcakes, which brought a total sales price of $1800, selling Easter candy, including chocolate covered almonds, mints, chocolate bars, and turtles. The band also decided to sell sweaters, jackets, and shirts with North Scott's shield monogrammed on them. Also the students had the option of doing their own independent projects for their own personal funds. The band will be in Canada for five days and will participate not only in a marching contest but also in concert band. A highlight of the trip is the anticipated attendance of the Queen of England, Elizabeth II. Much hard work and planning goes into this type of trip and the students will get both a memorable experience and an education out of it.

THE APPRAUSE

Elwood can't see why people can't see Harvey, an invisible rabbit. Wilson tries to change his ways, with no luck in sight.

E. J. Lofgren, Betty Chumley, Judge Gaffeny, Dr. Chumley, Myrtle, Elwood P. Dowd, Veta, Sanderson, Kelly, Wilson, Miss Johnson, and Mrs. Chauvenet took a curtain call after the comedy ended. The characters came to life on the North Scott stage with the many witty lines of this famous play. It was well done, but the audience never did get to see Harvey!

Wilson gives Myrtle the "once-over" twice!

The cabdriver gets paid by Elwood.

Chumley and Judge Gaffney know Elwood is crazy!

Myrtle Mae, perhaps you had better leave the room And then I was walking down the path . . . when a man jumped out at me from behind a tree . . . he grabbed me . . . he pulled me into the sanitarium . . . he dragged me upstairs . . . he pulled off my clothes . . . my corset all by himself . . . and then . . .

ONE ACT ONE

BETWEEN ELEVEN

AND THURSDAY

What happened between eleven and Thursday on February nineteenth? North Scott students wondered whether it had been a dream or if it was reality when the one-act "Between Eleven and Thursday" had ended. For several members of the cast this was their first acting experience. Directors Sally Mickelson and Julie Keller did an excellent job in preparing this absurd comedy.

As Godfrey (Joe Kohler) comes to town he enters a bus station. Asking the ticket agent (Bill Lineburg) for the next bus he learns it leaves between eleven and Thursday. The waitress (Judy Claussen) will gladly serve him coffee without the coffee as he waits. A blond girl (Carol Shutte) comes in invisible to all but Godfrey. The sheriff (Margaret Marsh) joins the scene in a motorcycle helmet. A little girl (Linda Tulk) bothers Godfrey, as the blond girl's mother (Debbie Claussen) hits him with a broom. The doctor (Lee Hamann) converses with him as does a man (Roger Schneckloth). They try to explain their town as a Western Union boy (Rorak Jones) enters telling he has no telegraph. As the bus comes, the curtain falls.

ONE ACT TWO

FOUR ON A HEATH

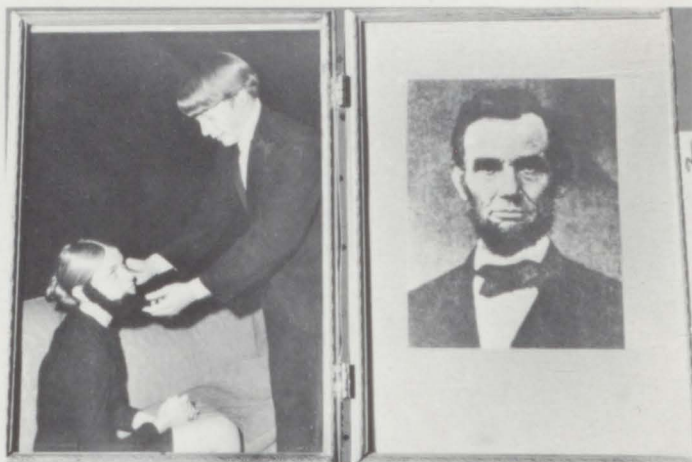

Hanging on the gallows were a captain (Don Keehner,) Tom (Dan Goodin) and Dick (Neil Bailey.) They awaited their fellow highwayman, a young boy (Roger Ballou) they had raised from childhood. The three had been captured in a stagecoach robbery and hung. The boy had escaped. As they await him the three reminisced of their times together.

When they have about given up hope, the young boy arrives. He ends the tale of the stagecoach as the narrator (Dave Keeling) tells of the wind blowing coldly on a dark and dreary hill.

"Four on a Heath" was directed by Dave Keeling.

ONE ACT THREE I MARRIED IRENE

because she had eyes like
Abraham Lincoln

Once upon a time, there lived Merton Naesby, (Dave Downs), who believed his wife, Irene, (Betty Rock), was Abraham Lincoln. One day, Nadene Fortune Smith (Bonnie Moore) tries to bring light and gaiety to Merton by giving him a houseful of guests. They are party dolls (Karen Boege, Dave Whyte, Sue McVey, Rudy Braun, and Mary Bowers) who liven up Irene's life. (she really didn't enjoy Civil War games ALL the time). The party is broken up when John Wilkes Booth (Joe Kohler) enters and "kills" Irene, who has just finished "poisoning" Merton. But they all live happily ever after and end by singing "Tenting Tonight". Good grief!

"I Married Irene Because She Has Eyes Like Abraham Lincoln" was directed by Ardyce Marsh and Cindy Stender. It was also presented at Pleasant Valley on Saturday, January 24, 1970.

CAPTURE A BACHELOR 1970

Once every year the girls of North Scott have a chance to fling the drawbridge and ask their favorite lancer in shining armor to a dance. The Bachelor Capture has become a royal tradition with a king reigning over this special night.

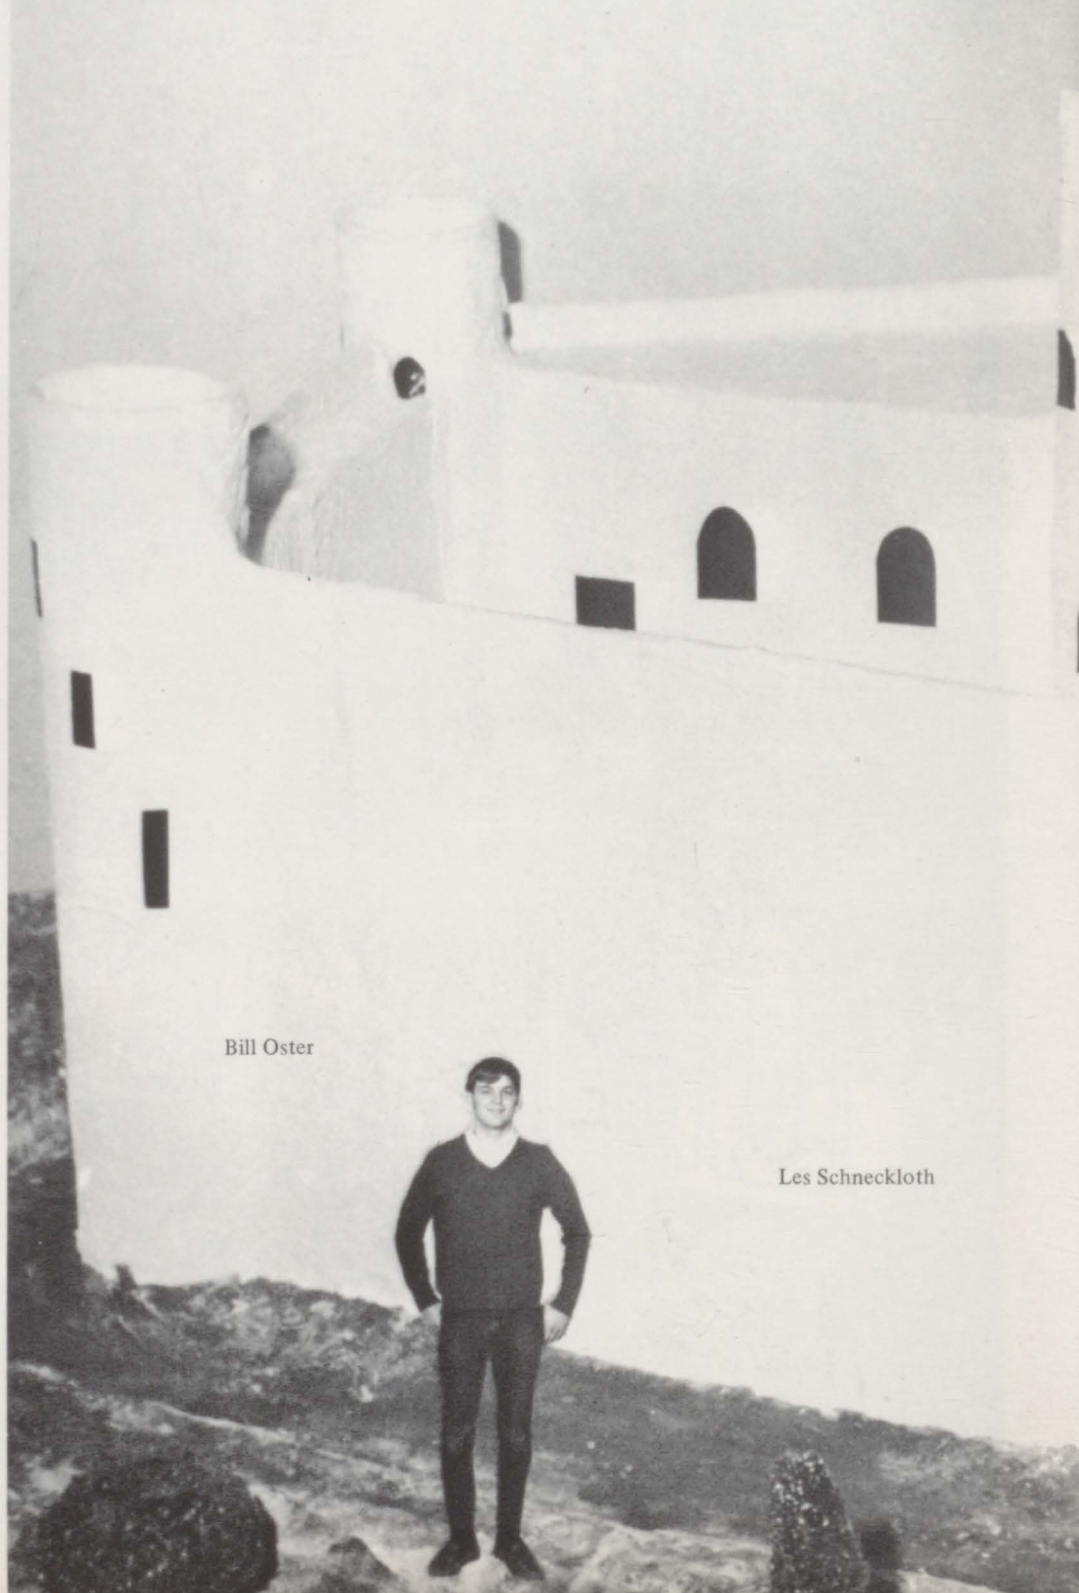

Many hours of work and frustration go in to changing the gym into a ballroom. This year, under the leadership of Miss Connie Furgeson and Mrs. Danielle Chappell, the Jr. and Sr. girls looked to Romeo and Juliet for inspiration.

The days of chivalry returned at the North Scott gym on February 28, 1970. Royal Red and Blue and Purple, crystal goblets and a glittering chandelier bedecked the 1970 Bachelor Capture which was highlighted by the crowning of Dave Keeling as king, by Deena Carter 1969 Homecoming Queen. Others in the court were Roger Ballou, Dean Englebrecht, Dick Pischke and Butch Roller.

Completing the Top Ten were Les Schneckloth, Bill Oster, Chris Porter, Bill Kuhl and Dave Downs.

The mood was set when you stepped across the flower draped drawbridge over the moat and entered an imaginary world where candles flickered merrily. Long skirted maidens and courtly gentlemen were waiting on one's needs adding to the special atmosphere of the night. "A Time for Us", played by the Ivory Coast, was added to the music made for dancing. Hairdos vanished and flowers died, but the memory of a time for us will linger on as the legend of Romeo and his Juliet.

WRESTLING
VICTORY

These seven girls add pep and cheer to their ninth grade games. The 1969-70 Freshmen cheerleading squad consists of Chris Ehrecke, Sue Roukey, Debbie Giebelstein, Mary Beth Mohr, Diane Fick, Diane Mohr, and Lisa Litscher. Seven girls, instead of the usual five, enable the squad to do many new and varied routines and cheers.

STEPS STIMULATE SPIRIT

This year's Sophomore cheerleading squad was made up of eight girls. They are Denise Rock, Julie Oele-rich, Connie Mohr, Rhonda Bowman, Sherri Corrigan, Annette Keppy, Sunny Frye, and Jane Ewoldt. New outfits added to the spirit of the Sophomore games and pep auds.

This year North Scott had ten varsity cheerleaders. This number provided cheerleaders for both wrestling meets and basketball games scheduled for the same night. The varsity squad, pictured at left are, kneeling: Suzi Dittmer, Kristy Lage, and Vicky Brown. STANDING: Patty Kroeger, Paulette Engel, Rhea Claussen, Deena Carter, Jani Schulz, Debbie Meinert, and Denice Jones.

LETTERS LEND PRESTIGE

Young men at North Scott work to receive letters for participation in the various sports, including football, wrestling, basketball, track, and baseball. The standards for earning letters are as different as the individual sports. Letters are awarded for playing four quarters of varsity football. Wrestlers must grapple in three varsity meets to gain an "N". Playing five quarters in varsity basketball games qualifies as does placing first, second, or third in a track meet. Nine innings of baseball are the minimum requirement for a letter in that sport.

Varied and interesting, active and interested make proud players from North Scott. It is a long step for some, but more than worth it!

NORTH SCOTT TRACK STARS!

"It's a long way up but a short way down," says high jumper Larry Mohr.

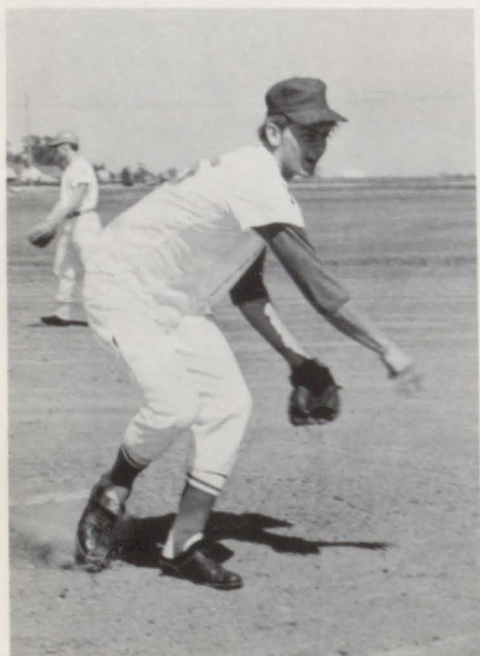

1970 Lancer steps around the track proved to be winning ones, although very damp, as head track coach Don Schmelzer sprinted his charges on to victory. The first scheduled meet was to have been at home against Bettendorf; since the track was covered with snow in the morning, the meet was cancelled. Much of the remainder of the season was hampered by rain and high winds, but this did not appear to bother the N.S. thinclads as many individuals stood out as the season progressed. Many of the squad's best, qualified for the state meet at Jefferson on May 23. They were pole vaulter Randy Stitcher, shot putter Ron Tuftee, hurdler Mike Mohr, and runners Ron Mahmens, Bob Peterson, Denny Mohr, Butch Roller, and Dick Pischke. The season ended with the addition of many new trophies to our collection. Numerous medals on N.S. letter jackets and wet Adidas—these were the end results of 1970 steps taken around the Lancer track.

SWINGPHONIC INVENTION

The 1970 Swingphonic Invention was held at the North Scott High School Gym on March 13 & 14 with the sounds of the Stage Band and Swing Chorus making memorable music to the themes of the times.

Features in the program included "Up, Up, and Away" with giant balloons descending on the crowd from a rigging far above the audience and "O Happy Day" a spiritual set in a church atmosphere, as well as "Aquarius" and "Let the Sunshine In" from the smash musical "Hair" which were sung to the beat of a strobe light bouncing off mod outfits. The program was also brightened by the featured renditions of the Stage Band whose numbers included "Carnaby Street", "Hip Bones", "Model Model." Roger Ballou, Dan Goodin and Steve Kuehner provided comedy and humor as the masters of ceremonies.

PROM 1970 THE RAIN THE PARK AND OTHER THINGS

If you have ever taken a walk through the park as it started to rain, and you ran for cover you will understand the theme selected by the Junior class for the 1970 Jr.-Sr. Prom. It was a conglomeration of love things and happy things, pretty things and tasty things. The decorations were highlighted by a fountain with live fish under a colorful gazebo of spring-like flowers. The sky overhead was really star dotted streamers and naturally the park had evergreen trees! A large silver moon hung overhead as you entered through a tunnel of love down the steps to the dancing floor.

A picnic lunch of hot dogs, cheese and crackers and pink lemonade completed the trappings for a memorable evening. The Loved Ones provided the music—every park has its rock fest nowadays, and so did ours.

As the rain came down outside the prom bloomed inside in the rain, the park and other things.

A rest between sets are a welcome relief for some. (We will never know if the brown paper sack had a good time, though!)

Paulette Engel and Don Keehner try the hot dogs as they stroll through the park.

Deena Carter and Dave Keeling stroll in.

"Care for a bite?" Jani Schulz and Dick Pischke.

"There are all kinds of flowers in the park including Denice Jones," says Roger Ballou.

ASSEMBLY AWARDS ACHIEVERS MAY 7

Ardyce Marsh won $125 in U.S. Savings Bonds for her entry in Pepsi-Cola's "You've Got a Lot to Live" essay contest. To the right is Wendall Edwards of Pepsi presenting Ardyce with a Pepsi pillow and bottle.

The applause above is a token of all the many honors that are acknowledged at our annual Awards Assembly each spring.

Marsha Acord winner of the Iowa State Bar Association Citizenship Award.

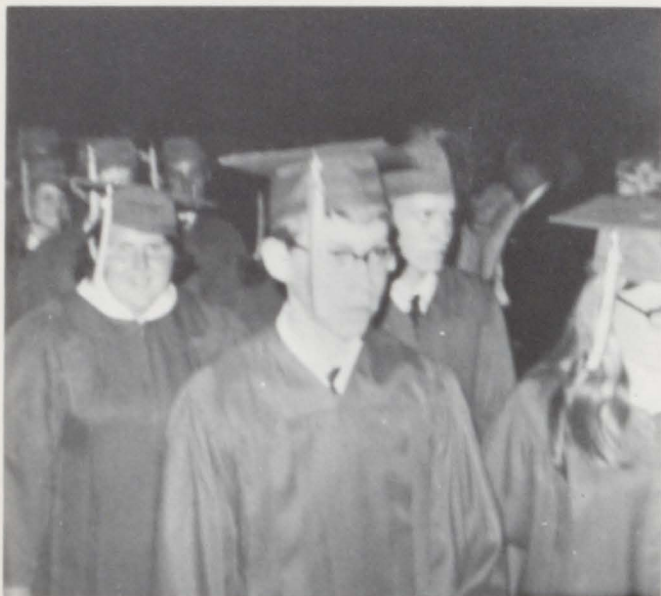

Judy Claussen winner of the Crisco Award for work in home economics.

Julie Keller winner of the Betty Crocker and Bausch & Lomb Science Award.

FRIENDSHIPS

The Junior Class Officers feel coup'd up this year, with only one more year to go. Ron Tuftee, in the driver's seat, served as President. Mary Jo Ernst, sitting on the hood, was Vice-President while Dan Goodin was Treasurer. Randy Stichter, at right, was Secretary. Mr. Don Scott and Mr. Robert Voelkel, advisors, point out that they are in a no parking zone.

This view, like many others at North Scott, will soon be very changed. We were slowly made aware of these changes as the year progressed. A new parking lot was added in the fall as the first of the new additions. The view above is from the west end of the library before construction of the expanded facilities began. Both students and teachers were most anxious for the new gymnasium, shop and music facilities. Foremost in the student's minds were the dreams of a student commons, an almost reality. Steps everywhere.

THE GERM

A mighty creature is the germ,
Though smaller than the pachyderm.
His customary dwelling place
Is deep within the human race.
His childish pride he often pleases
By giving people strange diseases.
Do you, my poppet, feel infirm?
You probably contain a germ.

A graduate of the State College of Iowa, Mr. Richard Thompson was appointed to the newly created position of Junior High Principal. He is presently working toward his Master's Degree, which he expects to receive in 1970. Mr. Thompson taught two classes each afternoon, which made the combined job of teacher and administrator a challenge for him. His duties as principal consisted of making basic class schedules, Junior High disciplinary action, and solving all problems of the Junior High. Mr. Thompson felt visiting classrooms was an important part of his job so that he could see first hand the problems of the Junior High program. With an abundance of new ideas, the new principal expects to see many changes as he steps toward the future.

FOOTBALL

The Athletic program for junior-high sportsters was roused to high spirits by a terrific intermixed team of seventh and eighth grade football players. The North Scott gridders compiled a 4-1 record, and bowed only to DeWitt Central by thirteen points (29-16).

Led by eighth grade co-captains, Bill Goodin and Jeff Suiter, the team shut out both Northeast of Goose Lake (46-0) and Pleasant Valley (36-0). Coach William Erps was particularly proud of the ball club after a superb performance against the Pleasant Valley team. The Lancer junior-high team didn't let P.V. get past the North Scott forty yard line and were victorious even though they had two touchdowns called back.

Two outstanding players for the young gridiron team are Joe Flynn and Mike Kroeger. Offensively, Joe gained 815 yards in rushing, while averaging 19.9 yards per carry. A total of 12 touchdowns is a mark of high esteem for Joe's eighth grade year. As far as the other half of the game, Mike Kroeger starred in defensive action.

BASKETBALL

Working as two teams the junior high basketball players found this season to be very rewarding as their records clearly show. Both teams completed their season on Friday, February 13. Although it was believed to be an unlucky day for superstitious players, the North Scott seventh graders let nothing discourage them as they defeated Pleasant Valley.

The seventh grade team boasted an impressive 7-1 record, led by Joe Flynn, Mike Kuehl, and Kevin Jansen with seven, nine and ten point game averages, respectively. Pointing out the best game of the year, Coach Erps recalls the contest with Wilton. The seventh graders led only 15-11 at the half. Holding Wilton to just three free throws, they polished off the game 42-14.

Gary Maiden stood out in scoring for the eighth grade group with a ten point game average. Steve Schroeder led in rebounds also averaging ten per game. John Green, Tony Edwards, and Marc McCubbin played with the skill of second year cagers.

Coach Dennis Rusk was proud of the team's sportsmanship and all around high spirits in a split season, 4-4.

WRESTLING

Also a combined sporting effort, the junior-high wrestlers finished their dual season with a 3-4-0 won and loss record. Coach Lahann tabs the DeWitt Central meet as showing the greatest amount of individual effort by each grappler on the team.

The season's standout was HWT Bill Goodin, who pinned two of his opponents in the first period. Bill ended the year with a 2-2-1 record. Other high scale competitors were 75 pound Lee Marti (6-1-0) Al Schneckloth (3-0-1).

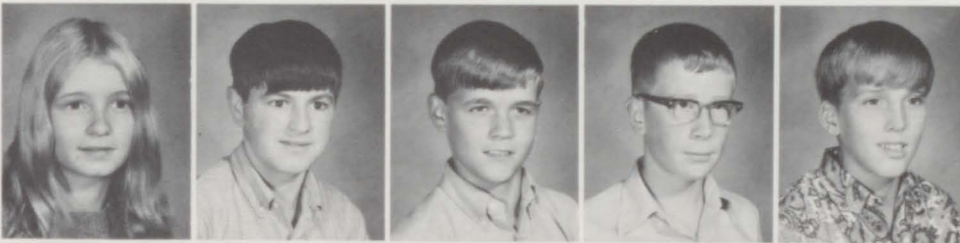

The Lancers team scores were N.S. 14-DeWitt 31, N.S. 42-Northeast 10, N.S. 24-Camanche 32, N.S. 32-Bettendorf 16. N.S. 17-DeWitt 22, N.S. 36-Northeast 11, N.S. 12-Pleasant Valley 33.

1971 AND 1972

1971 AND 1972

A CAPSULE OF 1969-70

AUGUST 1969

School officially opened at 8:30 A.M. August twenty-fifth, but it actually began long before this. Football workouts began on the fifteenth and marching band and the cheerleading squads began practice for their fall seasons, too. The faculty was required to be in school beginning the twentieth. The first day of the 1969-70 school year saw the usual mixup of students, teachers, classes and schedules. Large group instruction was our first step in multi-scheduling and in modular system. All this was straightened out in time, however, for the campaign for the newly organized Student Congress and for the football intersquad game. August proved interesting.

SEPTEMBER 1969

The early part of September saw our first Student Congress elections and the first 1969 non-conference football games. Re-organized academic clubs began to hold meetings and conduct business. The week of the twenty-first brought the North Central Association to North Scott for a visitation. Iowa Tests of Educational Development brought 3 long days. The month ended with tryouts for the fall play, "Harvey", and the announcement of the top ten girls for Homecoming. September was encouraging.

OCTOBER 1969

With October came the annual excitement of Homecoming. The top five were announced at a Pep Aud on the third with Homecoming Week beginning the sixth. Window displays went up and wood gathering began in earnest. Thursday, the ninth, the night of the Bonfire was ushered in by rain and a high wind. A pep rally was held in the gym with a snake dance afterward through Eldridge. The traditional pep aud was held in the gym Friday afternoon, with Deena Carter being crowned queen. The rain continued through the game Friday night, but had abated by Saturday night, when the Homecoming dance was held. The remainder of the month was quite calm compared to the frenzy of the first two weeks. The woodpile was finally burned on the thirtieth, the night preceding our last home game of the season. October was rainy.

NOVEMBER 1969

"Harvey", the fall play, was presented by the SADONS November seventh and eighth after many weeks of rehearsal. On the tenth, the football teams held their annual potluck. Practice began for the winter basketball season and the vocal music departments, both junior and senior high, presented concerts. Thanksgiving vacation began Wednesday, the twenty-sixth, and continued through the remainder of the month. The first varsity basketball game of the '60-'70 season was held on the twenty-fifth against Camanche. November was busy.

DECEMBER 1969

With December came the annual Christmas spirit and the looking forward to Christmas vacation. The first week brought the Speech Invitational and the Music Boosters Ham Supper, with the usual work and excitement. The excitement carried on to the next week when again the fearless faculty downed the KSTT Good Guys. The Christmas Concert by the band and choir proved to be another success as it set everyone in the right mood for the holidays. The twenty-second brought about College Information Day and the pleasures of talking with old friends, but the highlight of the month for many was our extra day of vacation on the twenty third, because of snow. What a way to start a vacation and end a month. December was jolly.

JANUARY 1970

School resumed on January 5, 1970, and things were in full swing once again, with two wrestling meets and varsity basketball games the first week. The next week brought below zero temperatures and an icy school as well as exams. The typical apparel in class was coats, mittens, and slacks for girls. The first week of the second semester saw a trip to Des Moines for the North Scott Singers, a trip to Pleasant Valley High School for those involved in the one act plays "I Married Irene Because She Had Eyes Like Abraham Lincoln" and "Four on a Heath", and a trip to Luther College and the Annual Dorian Music Festival for some members of the choir. The wrestlers had two important tournaments to attend, the Pleasant Valley Tourney and the Conference tournament at Savanna, Illinois. Two home basketball games had half-time entertainment presented by the trampoline team. January was cold!

FEBRUARY 1970

Thoughts in February turned toward the Jr.-Sr. girls' annual Bachelor Capture, "A Time For Us." The wrestlers' regular season was over on the third, but there was still the sectional tournament at Pleasant Valley which allowed for 5 grapplers to go on to district. Preparations were well under way for the third annual Swing Show. The FHA held their annual slumber party in the gym after the victorious St. Mary's basketball game on Friday the thirteenth. The following day the National Merit Exam was offered and that night the junior class served at the Scott County Beef Banquet in the gym. During the afternoon of the nineteenth, the three one act plays were presented to the student body. On the following day, the top five boys were announced at the pep aud. The 20th and 21st took five wrestlers to Anamosa for the district tournament. Decorating for the B.C. began after school on the twenty-seventh and continued late into the evening. This was also the evening of the last varsity conference basketball game. The twenty-eighth was indeed "A Time For Us" for all the Romeos and Juliets at the 1970 Bachelor Capture. At ten o'clock Dave Keeling was crowned king and began his reign. February was memorable.

MARCH 1970

March showed us that spring would soon arrive, but this new season proved no less active than winter. The first week saw the basketball squad travel to Clinton for the district tournament game against Pleasant Valley High School, winning 56-51. Then the River Kings on Thursday March 5 saw four fan buses and great school spirit view a very sad loss. The faculty carnival was held on the sixth and seventh, and on Monday evening, the ninth, the wrestling squads held their potluck and presented their awards. That same week, on the thirteenth and fourteenth, the music department presented the Swing Show after weeks of hard practicing. The choir took a day off from school on the sixteenth to go on tour and the basketball potluck was held the following evening. The SADONS had a busy weekend, for state speech contest was held on the twentieth and twenty-first. A well earned vacation began on Wednesday the twenty-fifth. It was quarter break and Easter vacation all rolled into one. March was windy.

APRIL

1970

The first weekend in April, the third and fourth, North Scott musicians traveled to the state solo and ensemble contest. The following weekend, a group of juniors and seniors accompanied by Mr. Scott and Mr. Agosta journeyed to U.N.I. to attend the Iowa State High School Model United Nations. The Tri-School Band Festival was held in the North Scott gym on Saturday the eleventh, and the Tipton Tiger Relays were held at the Tipton High School track. The Davenport Relays were held on the eighteenth at Brady Street Stadium. The North Scott Band Festival was held on the nineteenth, a Sunday afternoon. The following weekend saw part of the track team journey to Des Moines and the annual Drake Relays, April twenty-fourth and twenty-fifth. April ended with an aud presented by the North Scott band on the afternoon of the thirtieth. April was foolish.

MAY

1970

May proved to be a beginning as well as an end. The second, a Saturday, brought the State Large Group music contest as well as the Gateway Classic in Clinton. Tryouts for cheerleaders for the 1970-71 season were held in the gym the following Monday and Tuesday. The student body of the high school gathered in the gym the afternoon of the seventh for the Awards Assembly. The district track meet was held on the eighth and ninth, qualifying those going on to State. After weeks of planning and work the class of '71 sponsored their prom "The Rain, the Park, and Other Things" on the evening of the ninth. The conference track meet was held on the two year old North Scott track on the twelfth. The vocal department presented its last concert of the year the following Sunday afternoon. Finals for the seniors began the week of the eighteenth with baccalaureate and commencement practice the afternoon of the twenty-first, and the senior picnic on the twenty-second. The twenty-third brought the State Track Meet, and Baccalaureate was held on the twenty-fourth. Commencement was held on May twenty-seventh at 8:00 P.M. School officially ended at 3:45, May twenty-eighth. May was a month of finales, but ended very merry.

AN AFTERWORD

There is an old Chinese proverb, "May you live in interesting times." We feel that we have indeed been endowed with such times. The magnanimity of our landing on the moon to the deafening awareness of the air hammers announcing the growth of North Scott testify to our good fortune. We are surrounded with preeminent interest.

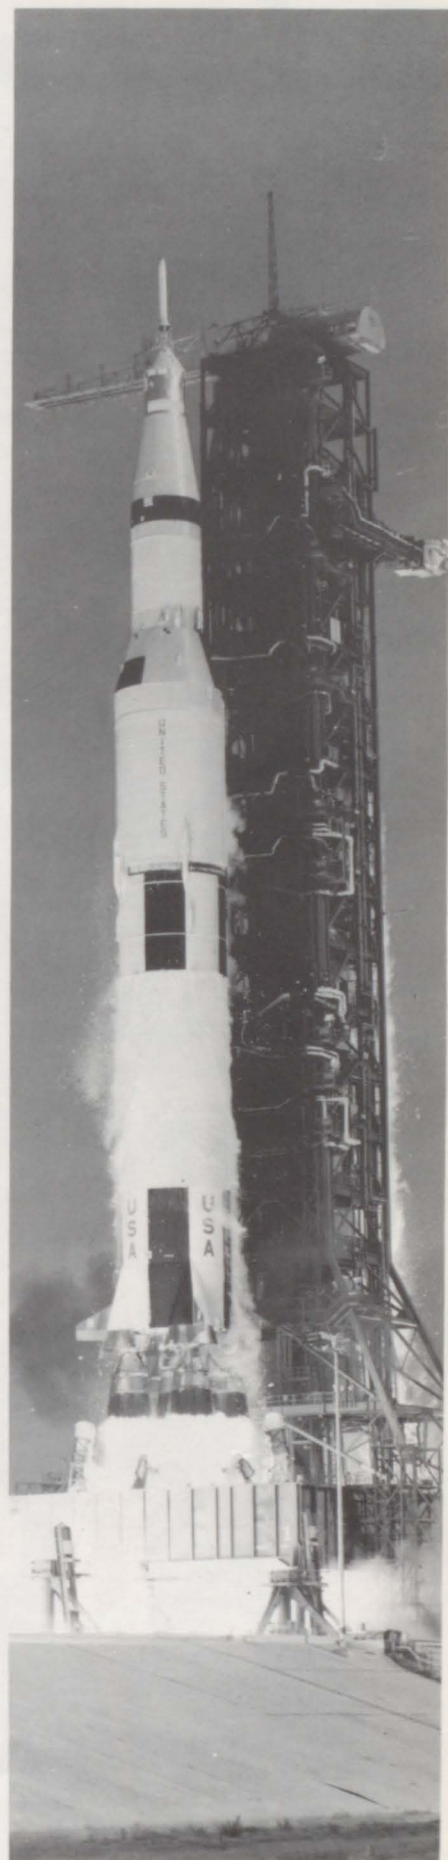

We have seen glad times and sad times this year which we have tried to bequeath using the steps necessary to perpetuate these times.

... the wind at football games ... your locker door that never opened right ... the drip, drip in the bucket in the lobby ... the trampoline spring ripping your shorts ... the desk with the tilted back ... the day it was 21° below zero ... the test you knew you passed, and didn't ... the greasepaint that never really did come off ... the stacked locker, again ... the band lesson you never were quite ready for ... the coach's embarrassment ... the last look down A hall ...

Yesterday is steps taken. We have wanted to help you remember these steps. But more importantly we see tomorrow as a beyond of uncertainty, full of steps influenced by genius, influenced by love, influenced by prejudice. Beautiful steps. Clouded steps. Sensual steps. Hard steps ... and perhaps fatal steps. But without them we can neither live nor die. And so we take one more step.

We wish you worthwhile steps as you go beyond today's yesterdays into today's tomorrows.
